In honour of her 100th birthday, Lily Curry was showered with cards, plaques and special greetings during a party at Hyland Crest last Thursday. Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Ray Moore was among the many dignitaries to make presentations to the long-time Haliburton resident during the lunch-hour festivities. For more details, please turn to page 26.

Concerns aired, Ride returns

Maher, Sisson on committee

The Ride for Sight will be back in Minden again this summer in spite of some serious concerns expressed by Anson, Hindon and Minden councillors Mike Maher and Bob Sisson.

Representatives of the Ontario chapter of this annual fundraising ride attended a council meeting last Tuesday. And while they were given the go-ahead to bring the huge event back to the village for another year, they also heard that not everyone is delighted with the behaviour of some of the participants.

Maher, a former OPP Constable with the Minden Detachment, relayed some of his own misgivings as well as concerns of the local police. Maher said he was on duty one year during the ride and was called to investigate reports of naked motorcyclists and of people climbing the light towers around the ball park. When he arrived in his cruiser at the gate to the fairgrounds, the people at the gate tried to prevent him from entering.

Maher also noted that more and more riders are turning up at the fair grounds a few days before the event even starts. He said it is supposed to last a weekend, but it is gradually growing into a week-long event.

"I'm wondering how much longer we're going to be the hosts," Maher said. Although the ride organizers must get permission each year to return to Minden, Maher feels it has become a fixed event here.

Not all council members shared Maher's feelings. Deputy Reeve Bern Berry strongly supported the return of the popular event. Minden relies on tourism and anything that will attract people to the village should be promoted, he said. Things like the Dog Sled Derby, the group tours from Minden Germany and the Ride for Sight are "the best and cheapest advertisement we can get," said Berry.

"You can't bring 5,000 people anywhere and not have problems," Berry argued. The problems associated with the ride are relatively minor, he said.

Councillor Lewis Stevens agreed that the ride is a great event for Minden. It brings about 7,000 people to the village for a weekend each summer. "I don't know how we'd ever get coverage like that," he commented.

In the belief that Maher and Sisson would appreciate the benefits of the event if they were involved in the organization, Berry forwarded a motion to have them sit on this year's committee. That motion

Decision pending on land split

Moore Lake area cottagers are still awaiting the Ontario Municipal Board's decision regarding future development on a property at the point of the peninsula separating Moore Lake from East Moore Lake.

Several cottagers who live along the road that leads to this property complained to the board last Monday that any increase in traffic on the road would pose a safety threat to the current residents. There has been a long-standing dispute with the municipality over the condition of this road and the board heard that additional traffic would only make matters worse.

James Webster and Black Bear Estates Inc. own two lots at the tip of the peninsula. He has received permission from Lutterworth Township

Council to have the properties rezoned and severed into four cottage lots. Negotiations with some of the residents on that road, however, did not lessen their concern over the proposed development and they requested the OMB hearing.

David Schmidt was representing his father,

George, in objecting to Webster's plans. Charles Gerditschke claimed to be representing the Moore Lake Cottager's Association. However, since he had no formal authority from the association, Hearing Chairman E. Crossland accepted his

New council sworn in

Busy schedule to start the term

If any of the new members of Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council thought their new responsibilities meant two meetings per month, they were in for a surprise last Tuesday.

The new council was sworn in during the inaugural meeting last Tuesday morning, and before the day was over they had attended three meetings. The second meeting of the day was a lengthy regular meeting, where they dealt with a packed agenda. And when that was over, the weary council members had enough time for supper before a special meeting to deal with a proposed rezoning.

With his new son in his lap, United Church Minister Ed Moll gave the blessing to council at the inaugural meeting. In his brief message to the new council, Rev. Moll urged them all to remember who it is they were elected to serve. The people of this municipality have placed their trust in the five council members, he said. Moll also urged them to think of the future generations and try to make decisions that will benefit this municipality in the years to come.

Roy Windover, a former townships councillor, conveyed his best wishes. He also urged the new council to remember they were elected for the people and by the people.

Reeve Ray Moore expressed confidence in those elected to serve alongside him. He said there will be times of conflict, but said he is sure "we are capable of doing the job."

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!

testimony as an individual only.

The municipality chose not to be represented at this hearing.

The condition of the road and safety of the residents along the road were the main issues raised by Gerditschke and Schmidt. They said the road, which is not maintained by the municipality, has some very sharp curves and in most locations is not wide enough for two cars to pass. They both said there is a great deal of traffic on the road, although neither had taken an actual traffic count to give as evidence at the hearing.

In contrast to the residents' opinion of the road condition, the chairman heard expert testimony that this is a "typical cottage road". Godfrey Saunders, a civil engineer with vast background in road construction, said the roadway leading to Webster's property is not ideal, but is typical of many of the cottage roads in Haliburton County. "If anything, it's probably in better shape than most private roads that service cottages," he said.

The dispute over the maintenance of this 2.5-mile long road has been ongoing for at least 20 years. The property on which the road lies was deeded over to the municipality years ago. However, the council of the day never assumed it into their roads network. The residents now feel it should be maintained by the municipality. Council, on the other hand, refused to assume the road until it is brought up to Ministry of Transportation standards.

During the hearing, Saunders estimated it would cost anywhere from $125,000 to $150,000 per mile to have the road upgraded to the point where the municipality would be willing to assume maintenance.

On several occasions during the hearing, Herman Gerditschke attempted to interrupt but was cut off by the chairman. Toward the end of the hearing he did have an opportunity to speak out. Unlike the other property owners on the road, Webster is only looking to make a quick profit, he said. He bought the property for about $20,000, Gerditschke said, and will make about $80,000 on the sale.

Gerditschke's son Charles agreed. "Mr. Webster is here to make a profit," he told the board. "We're here for our safety."

Happy Holidays

In the rush of events, we tend to overlook the important friendships that are the true basis of business relationships. One of the great pleasures of the Holiday Season is the opportunity to exchange greetings with those whose friendship and goodwill are valued so highly.

In this spirit it is a pleasure to say "Thank You" and extend sincere appreciation for the very pleasant association enjoyed with you.

May a bright and prosperous New Year bring happiness to you and to yours.

Light
delight

It's delightful to take a drive just about anywhere in Haliburton County at this time of the season and see the beautifully decorated houses aglow with colourful Christmas lights. It is equally delightful to wander through the village during the day and notice the care that has gone into preparing the storefronts for the festive season.

There are only 13 more days before Christmas will be upon us and then, all too soon, the decorations will be neatly put away in boxes until next year.

Before that time comes, though, we have plenty of opportunity to get out and enjoy the beauty of all the decoration throughout the county and take part in the joy they represent.

Again this year, the Minden BIA is sponsoring a Christmas in the Village Decoration Contest. This contest is an incentive to business owners and home owners to make a special effort to beautify this area for the season. Contest details are in today's Times.

Judging by the many stores and homes already lit up for the season, judges will have their hands full picking out winners.

The only thing needed now to bring that extra touch of Christmas to the Highlands is a nice sprinkling of snow.

Vote For Sale: Cheap

The very best thing that can be said about Election '88 is that it's over. It was a very painful experience for me - and not just because the Rhinos failed once again to form the government. It was painful because I deviated from my normal election night procedure.

I paid attention to this one.

Normally on election night I don a sandwich board reading VOTE FOR SALE and stand outside the polling booth until some campaign worker makes me an offer (a mess of pottage is the minimum ante). Vote sold and all that loose change in my pocket making me list to port (or cooking sherry in a pinch) I make my way back to my tree hut, there to stretch myself out in front of a warm TV to watch Laverne and Shirley reruns.

At 8 p.m., I tune in CBC Radio to find out who's going to be the next PM. I know all votes haven't been counted and that most folks west of the Sleeping Giant

black 'n white

by Arthur Black

haven't even made their X yet, but that doesn't matter. Messrs Gallup and Goldfarb, Reid and Environics have cast their spells and read their chicken entrails. By 8 p.m. the sinister polstergeists can - and do - tell us who will park his loafers in the closets of 24 Sussex and how many of his henchpersons he'll take them with him.

So there's really no point in sitting glued to your TV or radio on election night waiting breathlessly to hear from polling station 26 in Nairn, Labrador. I knew that, and still I did a foolish thing. I not only listened to CBC Radio, I actually went down into the lower bowel of CBC Headquarters and sat with the reporters and pundits and numbers crunchers, watching them analyze the results as they dribbled in.

I thought it would be exciting to be at Action Central. I was wrong. It was boring. It was numbingly, stupefyingly, mind-erodingly boring. In terms of thrills would place the experience somewhere between root canal surgery and being stuck in an elevator in an un-air conditioned highrise on the equator. But then I'm not a political junkie. Unlike the other folks in that room, I don't get a visceral rush from the realization that, with 67 per cent of the polls reported, someone I never heard of from some riding I never knew existed has a slim lead over a lot of other people I never heard of.

Any redeeming feature from the whole experience? Yeah, one. A six-page, computer printout I

It's time to restock those bird feeders

Editor:

It's time to stock up your bird feeder for the 22nd Annual Minden Christmas Bird Count coming up on Saturday, December 17.

This year's count is shaping up to be one of the best ever. We expect to have more people involved than ever before and we hope you'll get involved. If you'd like to join one of the groups on the 17th, phone Ron Pittaway (286-3471) by December 16. If you'd like to be involved by reporting the birds coming to your feeder, or in your neighbourhood, keep track of the numbers of each species seen on the 17th and phone the results to Dennis Barry, Ron Pittaway, or Pearl Barry (286-1189) between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m. on the 17th.

Of special interest are any birds which would ordinarily have gone south by now (song sparrows, white-throated sparrows, blackbirds, brown thrashers, flickers, robins, orioles, juncos), any hawks, owls or eagles, any waterfowl (including loons, gulls and kingfishers), species that are extending their range northward (cardinals, house finches, mourning doves), gray jays, or any other bird which you consider unusual or can't identify. Species seen between December 14 and December 20 are included in the count, but numbers need only be recorded for those present on the 17th.

The 15-mile diameter count circle includes Minden, Kinmount, Gelert, Lochlin, Moore Falls, Miner's Bay and all the lakes, rivers, fields and forest in between. If you have any interesting birds in your area, Ron would be keenly interested in hearing about them even before the day of the count.

Last year's census was, in many ways, the best ever. Many thanks to those of you who called to tell us about the birds you had seen.

We expect this year's count to be even more exciting. Come join us!

Helping hands at tea service were much appreciated

Editor:

There are many projects which involve volunteers, and no project is more gratifying than the participation, serving and sharing, which occurs every Thursday afternoon here at Hyland Crest during our afternoon tea.

The hundreds of ladies involved make an individual thank you virtually impossible. However, our staff and residents have thoroughly enjoyed working with each and every one of the groups.

The sense of duty, humour, kindness and charity demonstrated to all of our residents was gratifying to behold, and looked forward to with great anticipation.

Without all of the ladies and gentlemen participating, this event could never be the huge success it is.

In closing, let me repeat once again, the work done by all of the volunteers is enormously appreciated and I hope you all look forward to seeing us in the new year as much as we enjoy your visits.

Great Expectations: Part II

When I was much younger than I am now, there were two things I would look forward to with all the high anticipation that a 10-year-old boy could muster. The first was weekends. The second was Sunday dinner. You started thinking about weekends around Thursday, usually after speech therapy, especially after a rough recess. Sometimes, depending on who was threatening to beat you up, you thought about weekends on Monday or Tuesday.

So much for weekends.

The reason weekends were so memorable in my life was because of Mom's cooking. Mom was Indon-

directions

by Edward Moll

esian, and when she started Saturday to prepare for Sunday's rice table, everybody on the block knew about it. Indonesian cooking, for the uninitiated, is something like an olfactory earthquake, very hard to ignore. I would warn my friends when they came to visit not to try Mom's cucumber dip, even if she insisted that "It's not too hot."

I grew up with the myriad of wonderful exotic, spicy smells that emanated from the kitchen when Mom worked in there. They drew me to dinner like a ringing telephone takes you away from anything else you do.

And the promise of good things to come would be more than amply fulfilled as we sat cross-legged on the floor around the tablecloth and feasted from her talents as we watched Walt Disney on TV.

Councils show support for clock

There is strong support from both Minden and Stanhope Township councils for donations toward the purchase of a clock to be placed in the tower in the new Staunworth Terrace Seniors' complex.

Alex Stevenson is spearheading a drive to raise the $11,000 it will take to purchase the clock. He attended recent council meetings in Minden and Stanhope looking for support.

Although neither council is prepared to make a financial commitment until the new municipal budgets are drawn up, the idea was well received at both council tables.

The clock is to be placed in the tower created by the elevator shaft in the building. Stevenson said the construction company has volunteered to add an extra eight feet to the shaft in order to accommodate the illuminated clock.

Stevenson told Minden Council that the clock will be a landmark honouring the pioneers of the three Staunworth municipalities. It will be 50 feet above the ground with one face pointed toward the fairgrounds and another toward the village centre. He is also hoping enough money will be raised to purchase a sound system to play music from the tower on special occasions.

Stevenson was reluctant to suggest a donation amount to either council. However, when pressed, he suggested $1,500 for Stanhope Township. He added that Minden should contribute the most to this since the clock will be in the village and it is a larger municipality. Lutterworth Township will also be approached for a donation.

The contributions from the municipalities will make up just a part of the total amount needed. Stevenson is also appealing to the public for donations, and recently received permission to give receipts for tax deductions.

Insects all set for a long winter

Marion Strebig
Federation of Ontario
Naturalists

A recent visit north of Bala confirmed the opinion of my arthritic joints that winter is creeping up on us. As I drove north, rain gave way to wet snow and by the time I reached my destination a few centimeters had accumulated on the ground. Later that day, accompanied by a 6 year-old, I walked out the familiar dirt road from the cottage.

Both of us were at the same time oppressed and exhilarated by the heavy wet snow which was rapidly blurring the familiar landscape. She remembered summer walks, and missed the sights and sounds of summer. "I wonder where everything goes in the winter. Do they mostly die?" she asked.

As we walked along I had noticed several dun-coloured spheres, like small ping-pong balls, hanging by silken threads from the dried grass stocks. I pointed them out to her. "Any idea who lives in there?" I asked.

She touched the sac and squeezed it gently, noting how tough the material was. I told her that it was full of tiny spiders waiting for the first warm days of late spring to emerge en masse and disperse on silken threads, carried by the wind.

These were the egg sacs of the familiar garden spiders, the large handsome spider, coloured with bands of white and yellow and black. In September its large circular webs, beaded with dew, festoon the garden and the house, stretched between bushes, across the corners of windows and on the supports of the verandah.

Farther on I stopped by the wild raspberry patch to examine the canes for loose bark. When I found what I was looking for, my companion said, "It looks like a zipper." The bark was peeled back on both sides and down the revealed wood ran a row of tiny holes. We had found the egg-laying site of a tree cricket. There were fresh eggs there because the twig was still vigorous and the holes were plugged. A delicate slit with a pen-knife revealed the yellow eggs. We closed the twig carefully and I told her that was probably all she'd ever see of a tree cricket, because they live in trees and are so well camouflaged. However, next August we would certainly hear them.

The open stretch where the dirt road joined the main road, which a month ago had been yellow with goldenrod, was now crisp and brown. Part way up the stems of many of the goldenrod, circular swellings erupted. We opened several of these before we found an inhabitant, a small white larva with a dark head which was the larva of the goldenrod gall fly. When the eggs of these species hatch the larvae burrow into the stem of the goldenrod and create a chamber in which they feed on the plant tissue. This causes the plant to grow its deformity around the excavated chamber.

On our way back we came to the snag of a large hemlock which had lost its top in a violent storm several years back. It was pitted with woodpecker holes, a sure sign that it was full of life. With the knife we lifted the loosened bark and found the carved patterns which mark the work of bark beetles, and the frass of myriads of boring insects. Frass is the refuse left by boring insects as they feed. Here there were two sorts of frass - the powdery dark material of digested wood which had been excreted and the undigested wood which looks like strands and chips of wood. Some woodborers keep their tunnels clear of frass, others pack it behind them as they work, and still others use it to plug entrance holes through the bark. Whichever method they use they are doing their job of breaking down cellulose in dead trees so that it can be recycled by new growth. We replaced the bark and left them to it.

Tucked into a crevice of the bark itself was a neat little cocoon. When we pulled it gently the silk was rather sticky and stretchy like cotton candy. "I have no idea who lives in there," I said.

"Let's leave him alone," my companion decided. She busied herself starting to roll an immense snowball. "Winter's really pretty neat, but it's nice to know they all didn't die."

Another six-goal game preserves Rockcliffe's perfect record

Another six-goal game from Scott Hamilton helped boost the Rockcliffe to their seventh straight win in Minden Men's Recreational Hockey last Monday as they took on The Times.

With 32 goals to his credit so far this season, Hamilton has proven to be a tremendous asset to the Rockcliffe's success. He alone has scored as many goals as the entire Hartwick club and is way out in front in the league scoring race.

The Rockcliffe's success isn't all due to Hamilton, though. Barry Boice is the fourth most successful goal scorer in the league with 14 goals to his credit while Dean Hewitt and Norman Barry share ninth place with eight goals each.

In last Monday's game, there was no real threat from The Times at any point in the contest. Hamilton had his hat-trick before the end of the first period and the team had a 5 - 3 lead. Scott Gartshore and Norman Barry each scored twice in this contest while Dean Hewitt, Tom Haley, Jim Crawford, Jason Stamp and Barry Boice each scored one.

Greg Newell and Craig Crowe both had good games for The Times. They each picked up hat-tricks. Dave Pettes scored twice while Ben Manuge and John Ballantyne notched one each.

Vasey 4, Hartwick 2

In the opening game of the night, Vasey Real Estate earned their second win of the season by a 4 - 2 score over Hartwick, successfully lifting themselves out of the basement.

In what is considered a low-scoring game for this league, Vasey outdistanced their opponents by scoring three times in the final frame. Ken Barry picked up two of Vasey's goals while Ivan Ingram and Tom Eager potted one each.

Sid MacKeigan was responsible for both of Hartwick's goals.

Halls 8, Home 1

Halls Insurance shored up their second place standing by outgunning third-place Home Hardware 8 - 1 in the second game of the night.

There was no real contest in this game either. Home did not manage to get on the score board until very late in the final period when Dave Rogers spoiled Doug Pearson's shutout.

Dave Hartwick, the second most successful goal scorer in the league added another three to his tally in this game. Larry Sawyer and Murray Beetlestone scored two each while Bart Hilhorst scored one for Halls.

Tonight, Halls will take another shot at the Rockcliffe at 7 p.m. Vasey and Home will play off at 8:30 p.m. and Hartwick and The Times will meet at 10 p.m. at the Minden arena.

Hamilton is top goal scorer

With the regular season now at the half-way point, the Rockcliffe's Scott Hamilton is by far the top goal scorer. He has managed to score at least two goals in each of the seven games this season. He scored eight in a single game when the Rockcliffe took on Halls. The league's leading goal scorers are:

Scott Hamilton (Rockcliffe) 32
Dave Hartwick (Halls) 20

Brian Shaw (Halls) 17
Barry Boice (Rockcliffe) 14
Sid MacKeigan (Hartwick) 13

Larry Sawyer (Halls) 11
Lawrence Loughed (Home) 10
Craig Crowe (Times) 9
Ben Manuge (Times) 8
Dean Hewitt (Rockcliffe) 8
Norman Barry (Rockcliffe) 8

ATTENTION!

The EPA says there may be too much lead in your drinking water.

SOLUTION:

The AMWAY[®] Water Treatment System - the only carbon-based system listed by the National Sanitation Foundation to effectively remove lead from your drinking water.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is alarmed about lead in your drinking water. Why? The EPA says, at low levels, lead may cause reduced birth weight and premature birth, delayed physical and mental development in babies, and impaired mental abilities in children. At high levels of exposure, lead can cause anemia, kidney damage, mental retardation, even death. That's why the EPA just proposed a drastic reduction in the level of lead in drinking water.

Lead can contaminate your water anywhere along the line, from the source to your faucet. And the danger may already be in your home because of lead contamination from your plumbing - either the pipes or the solder.

What can you do now to get the lead out of your drinking water?

The answer is pure and simple: the AMWAY Water Treatment System. It removes more than 100 priority pollutants. And it is the first and only carbon-based system listed by the National Sanitation System Foundation (NSF) to effectively remove lead from drinking water.

Get the AMWAY Water Treatment System.

IT GETS THE LEAD OUT!

Great Expectations

Along with the divine restlessness that I wrote of last week, the season of Advent also speaks of promise, expectation, and fulfillment. Christmas, as you may have heard until you don't want to hear it any more, is not just about writing letters to Santa, and waiting for the presents to come under the tree. For that matter it's not even about that. For when you really get down to it, Christmas and Advent, the season of Jesus's arrival, is about who we are, why we are here, and what we do in the meantime between our birth and our death. And all of that is tied up in a marvellously woven tapestry of our expectation of how God fulfills his promises, how God expects us to fulfill our promises, and how we expect each other to fulfill our promises to each other.

There is a statement in the Westminster Confession of faith, an old creed of the Church. Right from the start it makes our purpose and our meaning and our relationship with God very clear: "Our chief end is to worship God and enjoy Him forever." In other words, we get nowhere fast without God.

I like that little phrase "and enjoy Him forever". Whoever put that statement together was wise in knowing that there is no true fulfillment without enjoying our Maker, of relishing the pleasure of God's company, singing his songs, being with his friends, dining at his table.

Knowing and experiencing that kind of company, and sharing it with others is the most precious gift we can receive and give. May your life be God's kitchen where he prepares a meal for the world.

See you at worship this Sunday!

List of federal ridings is a thrilling read stole as a memento from Action Central Election Headquarters. It's a listing of each and every federal riding in the country. I know ... sounds boring. But it isn't. It's thrilling. Are you worried about the Americanization of Canada? Well, to paraphrase the President Elect, Read My List:

Medicine Hat, Wild Rose, Yellowhead, Souris Moose Mountain, Cariboo Chilcotin. Not exotic enough for you? How about Esquimaux Juan de Fuca? Okanagan Similkameen Merrit?

If you string the names together it becomes like a vast geographical tone poem summoning up the ghosts of Indians, voyageurs and other Canadian visionaries past - Hochelaga, Maisonneuve, Restigouche, Matépédia, Wetaskiwin, Jonquière, Longueuil, Selkirk, Ahuntsic, Malpeque.

Some of the names are long and rolling like a

John Crosbie soliloquy. Bonaville, Trinity, Conception - that's one riding. Humber St. Barbe Baie Verte is another.

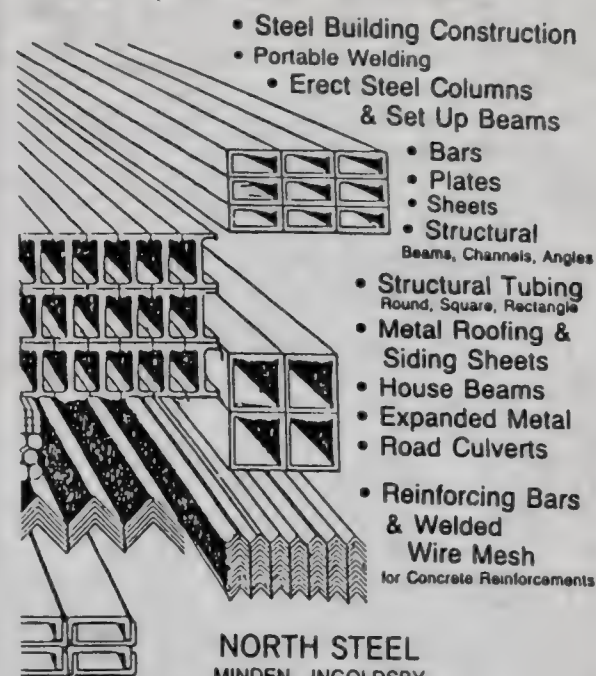

Mind you, it's not all Wordsworthian, this riding-by-riding printout. I wish someone had worked a little longer on names like Kent, Egmont and York West. Also, for that matter on Hastings-Front-Lennox and Addington. That's all one riding, but it sounds like a Bay Street law firm.

Scottish names abound - Dundurn and MacLeod and Glengarry, Prescott and Russell. Thank God for the infusion of French and native names to cut the unrelieved plaid, or we'd begin to look like the roll call from the Battle of Culloden.

But there's not much chance of that. When you see names like Okanagan Shuswap, Dauphin Swan River, Nunatsiag and Temiscamingue, there's only one country you can be in.

Only in Canada you say? You betcha.

Tri-County Atoms win in exhibition

submitted by
Corinne Howell

Last Monday night the newly-formed tri county atom team, travelled to Wilberforce for an exhibition game.

This was to be the first game they had played together as a team this season.

The team consists of nine players: Marty Dettman, David Raback, Daniel Howell, Todd Redgrave, Terry King (goalie), Benj Crego, Andrew Crego, Scott Bailey and Tommy Neville.

We were entertained by some excellent hockey. Minden scored in the first seven seconds; the goal being scored by Todd Redgrave, assisted by David Raback.

Minden continued to attack with several shots on goal, the second and third goals were scored in the second period; the first by Andrew Crego, assisted by David Raback. The second by Marty Dettman, assisted by Todd Redgrave.

Minden was able to hold their lead and the shut-out until the last five minutes of the game, when Wilberforce came through to score their only goal of the match.

Needless to say, both boys and parents came away with a great feeling.

Thanks go to John Dettman and Bill Redgrave. Keep up the good work.

Minden ladies advance to Regional Competitions

submitted by
Catherine Kellett

They did it the hard way, but the ladies' rink representing the Minden Curling Club in the Zone 3 playdowns will advance to the next level of play.

The zone playdowns for the Ladies' Provincial competitive curling were held in Minden on December 3 and 4 with seven teams taking part. After some very intense and interesting play during the two-day competition, the Lindsay and Minden rinks emerged the winners. The Bobcaygeon rink was runner up.

Minden skip Cheryl Murdock led her team through five 10-end games in the two days of competition. They defeated the strong Bob-caygeon rink on the Sunday to advance. Curling with Murdock are vice-skip Sally Bonner, second Laurie-Anne Welch and lead Karen Collis.

The Lindsay rink of skip Kathryn Brumwell, vice-skip Barbara Kelly, second Nancy Graham and lead Eleanor Plewes had the most successes on the weekend and advanced to the Regional playdowns along with Minden.

The Regional playdowns were held at the Scarborough Golf and Country Club last Friday and Saturday. This provincial competition leads to an Ontario final, and ultimately, to the Scott Tournament of Hearst Canadian Championship.

The Minden Ladies competitive rink has qualified for Regional play after winning in the playdowns on their home ice on December 3 and 4. From the left are lead Karen Colliss, second Laurie-Anne Welch, vice Sally Bonner and skip Cheryl Murdock.

Lily Curry turns 100 in style

A cool first impression grew into a lasting love of the Highlands.

When 16-year-old Lily Irish arrived in Canada in 1904 the first thing she did was insist that her father take her to Eatons. It was the only department store she knew of in this new land and she wanted to get a job right away.

For the handsome sum of $3 per week she operated a machine that threaded the lace through the top of corsets. And with the money she managed to set aside from her earnings, Lily bought herself the pair of shiny black shoes that caught her eye in the store window. "They told me they were too small, but I bought them anyway. They were the ruination of my feet," she confessed with no regrets at all.

wanted to open it again to business after it had sat vacant for about five years. Her first impression of the village was not an especially good one. She remembers the muddy roads and cool reception from the community. "It was the loneliest place I was ever in," she said. She and Arthur were considered to be city folk and, until they had spent some time in the community, those early residents were reluctant to open their arms and welcome the newcomers.

"I'd walk down the street and no one would even look at me," she remembers of her first few weeks in the village. "Once things got going at the store, though, they started to come around."

"It was the loneliest place I was ever in," Lily said of Haliburton.

This was just one of the tales of her younger years that Lily Curry was relating during a special birthday party held in her honour at Hyland Crest last Thursday. On December 10 Lily celebrated her 100th birthday and on Thursday she was showered with greetings and good wishes, which she accepted with pride and a great deal of wit.

Lily first came to Haliburton the wife of Arthur Gillam. They had recently purchased what is now Banks General Store in Haliburton Village and Lily's first look at their new store was even less inviting. It had been boarded up for five years and "when we opened it up it was an awful mess," she said. The previous owner, a Mr. Freeman, had apparently closed up the store without even bothering to clear out the remaining stock. For example, there were dozens of large kegs of cheese that had not been cracked open. And when the owners did open the kegs, they found that the contents had completely dissolved over the years.

Lily said it took most of a month to clean up the store and get it ready for customers. And while they transformed the store, they found the community gradually opening up to them.

In addition to providing groceries to the village, the general store housed the post office. Arthur's brother-in-law, Melville Horner, also opened a watchmaking business out of the store.

Soon Arthur and Lily were very much a part of Haliburton. Lily started a Haliburton chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, which still functions to this day. Arthur was the driving force behind the establishment of the first curling club in the village.

It was about 10 years after they arrived in the village that Arthur became ill and eventually died. By that time, though, Lily had come to consider Haliburton her home and she was not about to leave the county. She did move to Wilberforce, though, where she worked for the Red Cross doing some sewing.

In August of 1955, Lily married again. Her new husband was W.R. Curry, who owned and operated Curry Motors in the village. They had met at the store, Lily remembers, and they became friends through the Eastern Star.

During last Thursday's party, Lily was joined by many friends and family. In addition, she was presented with gifts and greetings from all the local dignitaries.

In one of his final official functions as the Warden of Haliburton County, Bob McCausland gave Lily a plaque from the County. He also gave her a silver dollar, a flower and a county pin.

Victoria - Haliburton MP Bill Scott delivered a very special birthday card from Queen Elizabeth and another from Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. He also presented her with a card of his own, a commemorative plaque from the Government of Canada and pin.

Anson, Hindon and Minden Deputy Reeve Bern Berry was representing the board of Hyland Crest for this ceremony. He congratulated Lily and presented her with a townships pin. He also brought greetings from Ontario Premier David Peterson.

Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Ray Moore had the honour of presenting Lily with a card from the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, Lincoln Alexander. Moore also brought a letter of congratulations from Victoria - Haliburton MPP John Eakins as well as a plaque from the Province of Ontario.

Novices complete exhibition games

Hello fans.

It's been a couple of weeks since our team has been in the news. During November we played nine different teams and now we begin our schedule playing three of those teams. Our coaches worked together to set the teams that would be most competitive producing great games for we fans.

This is a definite plus for the Tri-County system. Last year with this system our game scores were never beyond a 2 goal difference.

Back on Saturday, November 19 Woodville arrived in Minden for what turned out to be a walk away game. This game was great for our boys statistics and they did play together passing but it must be terribly hard for the Woodville boys. The score was 18-0. Everyone on our team made a statistic that game! Here are our goals and assists. Camelon 3 goals, 4 assists, Donnery 5 goals, Anderson 4 goals 2 assists, Daniels 2 goals, 2 assists, Stephenson 1 goal, Ranson 2 goals, Walker 1 goal, Todd 7 assists, Casey 4 assists, Ripley 3 assists, Carpenter 4 assists and goalie Kerr gained another easy shutout.

Monday, November 21 was a night of "meals on wheels" as we headed to Sunderland. Last year Sunderland's team was a difficult match for our boys and so we were prepared to work hard there. The game began very strong in favour of Sunderland. Finally the boys got going and won the game 7-0. Walker was our goalie for the night and did indeed have a few good shots on his net! The score pad was filled again with Donnery 2 goals, 1 assist, Carpenter 1 goal, 1 assist, Casey 1 goal, 1 assist, Anderson 1 goal, Stephenson 1 goal, 1 assist, Camelon 1 goal, Todd 1 assist, Daniels 1 assist, Ripley 1 assist, Kerr 1 assist. Special mention this time goes to Donnery and Stephenson. Donnery is one of our wing players who can cover his position totally and isn't afraid to use his abilities to go right after the puck. Most of Donnery's goals are hard worked for as he can flick that puck into the net after the puck has played in front of the net for what seems like a long time. Sometimes the puck gets totally under foot two feet from the net and Donnery gets her in! In fact, Donnery keeps poking after the whistle has blown which means he really has his mind on the job! Well done Donnery! Also Stephenson is another player with great determination and adds great skating skills. Stephenson plays center and quickly responds to any action. He is a skater that catches your eye as he moves down the ice stick handling around opponents. Stephenson always plays his best for the team. Keep up the great work Stephenson!

On Saturday, November 26 Fenelon Falls arrived to have what we all anticipated to be a hard game.

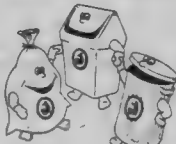

Fenelon Falls has in the past taken us for each game. It's hard for any team to go into a game knowing your abilities are not as good as your opponents. To our surprise our boys beat Fenelon 7 to 1! You could see once the boys were a goal or two up, they realized they could win and they played that much harder. A great game guys! Our goals were Donnery 2 goals, 1 assist, Anderson 4 goals, Stephenson 1 goal, Carpenter 1 assist, Casey 1 assist, Todd 3 assists, Ranson 1 assist. Come on out and enjoy the excitement with us!

The success of last month's fashion show at the Minden Community Centre was transformed into a $600 donation to the Minden Hospital last week. Cindy Wilson, left, from Just for You Fashions and Shirley Kuni, right, from My Size, delivered the cheque to Jean Anderson, Nurse Administrator. There was a total of 156 tickets sold for the fashion show and based on that success, they are hoping to have another this spring.

STAANWORTH MEMORIAL CLOCK FUND

A committee has been formed to create a memorial to honour the pioneers and early settlers of the Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden, Stanhope and Lutterworth.

The memorial will consist of a clock with two dials, one five feet in diameter and facing the town of Minden and the other three feet in diameter facing the fairgrounds.

Both dials will be illuminated and the clock will be approximately fifty feet above the ground.

The committee believes that the people of the three townships will wish to recognize the courage, toil and dedication of those early settlers who established themselves in this challenging land.

Donations to the Staanzworth Memorial Clock Fund should be made to:

Four fined for night hunting

Four Sebright area men were convicted in court in Minden on Tuesday, December 6 for a variety of offences related to a night hunting incident on October 30 of this year.

Responding to a series of complaints from Sebright area residents, conservation officers from the Minden District of the Ministry of Natural Resources apprehended the four while they were in the act of night hunting.

Fined $750 each for hunting at night, $750 for possessing unlawfully taken deer, and $200 for having a loaded firearm in their vehicle were Wade Morton and John Cleavelly.

Fined $503 for hunting at night and a further $500 for possessing unlawfully taken deer was James Cleavelly.

Also charged was a young offender.

All four have been prohibited from hunting for three years.

All equipment seized by the officers, including two hunting rifles, a spotlight and a deer, were ordered permanently forfeited to the Crown.

Night hunting and having loaded firearms in vehicles, in addition to being very unsportsmanlike, are also extremely dangerous practices. As a result, the Ministry of Natural Resources, the public and the courts are all taking a harder stand against such unethical hunting practices. The end result of this co-operative attitude is evident in cases such as this.

In an unrelated incident,

Craig Leuty of Welland, Ontario was fined $253 for shooting an antlerless deer without an antlerless deer tag on his licence.

Leuty was also prohibited from hunting for a one-year period.

Deer populations are managed in part by limiting the number of female deer harvested. By taking a doe when he does not receive an antlerless tag in the licence draw, a hunter restricts the ministry's ability to manage the deer population and jeopardizes a program intended to benefit everyone.

One conviction was also registered against Richard Pinchak of North York for fishing in Lake Dalrymple with more than one line. Pinchak was assessed a fine of $55.

For further information please contact the District Manager, Ministry of Natural Resources, Minden, Ontario. (705) 286-1521.

Police help drug education fund

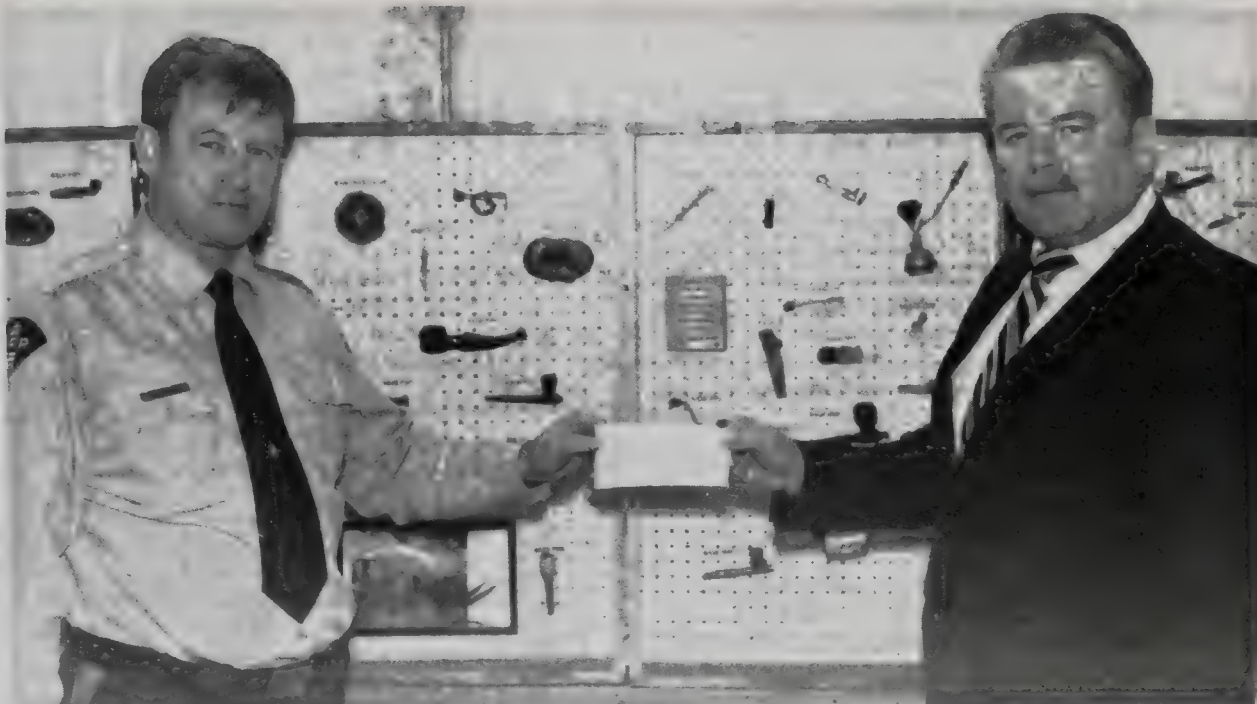

A drug education fund, sponsored by Masonic Lodges across the province, received a boost recently from the Ontario Provincial Police Association in District Eight. The group, representing OPP officers in this area, presented the Minden Lodge with a cheque for $200. The presentation was made by Constable Brian Dunham, treasurer of the association, to Mike Legge, Master of Minden Arcadia Lodge 440.

The Masonic effort was launched July 20 with the target of one million dollars. The Masons undertook the effort because of what they describe as, "...the number of lives being ruined because of drug abuse." The fund will be used to promote a drug education program, particularly among young people where drug abuse is most prevalent. Other lodges throughout the province will be adding to the fund raising effort.

In addition to the education program, the money will also be used for a drug research centre and assistance to parents in coping with the problems created by drug abuse among young people.

Constable Dunham said the local OPP association is pleased to assist in this effort. Being on the front line of drug law enforcement, police officers witness the dramatic impact drug abuse can have on individuals and their families, he said. He noted that drug users often turn to crime to support their habit, spreading the impact of their addiction to all sectors of society. He praised the Masonic Lodges for their efforts in combatting this serious problem.

This year, the local OPP Association has donated funds to the Apsley Ambulance Service and the Five County Children's Centre in Peterborough, as well as Masonic Lodge drug education fund.

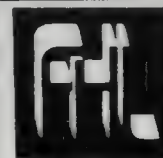

With the Minden OPP drug education panel as a backdrop, Constable Brian Dunham, treasurer of the District Eight OPP Association, presents Arcadia Lodge 440 Master Mike Legge with a cheque for $200. The money will be used for a province-wide drug education program being funded by Ontario Masonic Lodges.

Carl Northey wins big bucks

The arrival of the first snow of the season, pretty well marks the end of the season for the members of the Haliburton County Marksmen Club. However, before the guns get hung on the wall for the final time this year, the following report on the club's activities is offered by Tommy Williamson.

A high power rifle competition was held October 23, with shooters taking part in two classes, open and with scope. In each section, the marksmen were required to fire five shots kneeling, five shots standing, a maximum of five shots in 10 seconds and five shots of the shooter's choice. No mechanical supports were allowed.

In the open competition, David Seeney of Lindsay was top gun using a .32 special. Second place went to Ed Taylor of Gooderham with a .303 British, followed by Stan Griffith of Kinmount with a .32 special.

In the scope competition, first was Chris Buller-dick of Kirkfield with a .300. Herb Patsch of Oakville was second with a 22-250, while Brian Hill of Oakville placed third using a 30-06.

Big buck

Prizes for the Big Buck competition were awarded at the Kinsmen Hunter's Ball, held at the Stanhope Firefighter's Hall. There were nine entries in total.

Carl Northey of Minden won $100 for the largest, a 235 1/2 pound buck, shot at the Vasey Hunt Club. In second spot was Jim Walker of Minden with a 231.4 pound, ten point buck shot at Walker's Hunt Club, while third spot was claimed by Ray Miscio of Minden. He shot a 219 pound, 10 point buck at the Miscio Hunt Club.

Other entries in the competition were: Dave Theobald of the Pearson Hunt Club (Galway) 234 pounds. (To be eligible for first prize, the hunter must be present at the Hunter's Ball); Gary Miller of London, Ontario, hunting in Hindon Township, 216.6 pounds; Don Alton of Minden, hunting at the Merv Johnson Hunt Club in Anson Township, 201 pounds; Dennis McNamara, at the Knee Deep Hunt Club, 200 pounds; Marty Stata of Lindsay, hunting at the D/H Hunt Club in Stanhope Township, 195.1 pounds; and Warren Aggett of Carnarvon, hunting in Lutterworth Township, 183.9 pounds.

Official weigh-in stations for the contest were at Four Seasons Country Mart in Carnarvon and Coneybeare's Butcher Shop in Minden.

The first prize in the competition is provided by Tommy Williamson, a popular disc jockey in this area from Stouffville. The dance and secondary prizes are provided by the Kinsmen and Kinettes of Minden. This is the ninth year for the Big Buck Contest.

Wetlands policy announced

by John Eakins, M.P.P.

This week I have two key initiatives to report that would ensure protection of Ontario's Natural Resources.

A draft policy statement on planning for Ontario's wetlands has been recently announced in the Legislature. Stronger protection for our wetlands will be in place after a six month public review of the draft policy statement.

This policy statement recognizes the importance of Ontario's wetlands and reflects our strong commitment to their protection. Once approved, it will provide planning officials across the province with a clear mandate to incorporate wetland values in their land use planning decisions. The statement will provide the planning component of the province's overall management strategy that includes securing, evaluating and researching wetlands.

Over the next few months, I will be consulting municipalities and individuals to ensure that this statement will be an effective tool in making sound land use planning decisions.

On another related topic announced recently, the province will pay annual tax rebates of up to 100 per cent on certain conservation lands where landowners maintain the land in its natural state. The tax rebate, under the Conservation Land Tax Reduction Program, is retroactive to January 1, 1987.

The tax reduction program is an incentive for private landowners to maintain in a natural state conservation land that contributes to Ontario's conservation and heritage objectives.

Approximately 372,000 hectares of land, much of it in Southern Ontario, have been identified as significant conservation land. In the past, tax rebates were offered only to owners of agricultural or managed forest lands.

Owners of conservation land now have a similar incentive that makes it attractive for them to maintain lands rather than convert them to other uses. The minimum rebate payable is $20, even if the actual taxes paid were less than that amount. The maximum rebate is $25,000 per property owner, excluding Conservation Authorities.

Applications for rebates for the 1987-1988 tax years must be submitted to the Ministry of Municipal Affairs before December 31, 1990. Inquiries on the processing of applications and tax rebates may be directed to the Subsidies Branch, Ministry of Municipal Affairs, 777 Bay Street, 12th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5G 2E5, telephone 416-585-7546.

Bantams face tough competition in tourney

The Minden Bantam Monarchs put in a strong showing in tournament action in Haliburton on December 3, but were edged by East Gwillimbury in the consolation final.

Minden opened the tournament with a tough opponent in the talented Ennismore club and a disastrous first period left them with too much ground to make up. They lost the 7 - 6 decision.

Ennismore scored five goals to Minden's two in the opening frame.

Minden fought back in the second and third periods, but wasn't enough.

Rob Ackerblade was the leading scorer in this match with two goals and an assist. Hunter Obee earned a goal and an assist while Oliver Greer, Darren Sawyer and Philip Boyle each scored one goal. Jaime Dollo earned one assist in this opening game.

The second game of the tournament saw Minden clobber a Peterborough club 5 - 1 with Jaime Dollo notching a hat-trick. Jason Scarlett also had a good game, scoring once and assisting once. Darren Sawyer earned two assists, Hunter Obee scored one goal and Rob Ackerblade earned an assist.

The final game of the tournament was a real close contest against East Gwillimbury. Both teams were held scoreless through the first two periods. However, Minden was outscored three goals to one in the final frame.

Darren Sawyer notched the lone goal for Minden in this final with Jaime Dollo assisting.

A Christmas gift of love

Editor:

Christmas is a time of merriment and gift giving. Through giving and receiving we feel much pleasure. Humans, throughout the world, deserve such good feelings but, regretfully, for most persons, gifts, as we know them, are luxuries unknown to them. They live on a survival basis: their time, wit, and accumulations are used mostly to provide food and water.

The Help A Village Effort (HAVE) Committee is a totally voluntary, non-governmental organization. Over the past five years HAVE, with CIDA's matching contributions, has successfully completed in India 51 drilled village wells, a water pipeline, and a Rural Community Health Centre; and under construction in the Gambia six village wells; and in Nicaragua a gravity flow water pipeline. Currently, 26 new wells are being considered for India. Fortunately, HAVE's project officers monitor (at their own expense) these projects in the Developing Countries.

When making your

Christmas gift list, we invite you to consider the needs of our larger human family in their efforts to develop themselves beyond a mere survival existence.

Your gift can be made out to the HAVE Fund and sent directly to our treasurer: Mr. John Stouffer, P.O. Box 541, Haliburton, Ontario K0M 1S0.

Thank you for your generosity. A receipt for Income Tax purposes will be forwarded.

Merry Christmas.

The HAVE Committee.

Gerry Feltham.

Minden OPP notes

During the week of November 28 to December 4, officers at the Minden OPP detachment investigated 69 general occurrences and nine traffic accidents resulting in two injuries.

Break-ins

Thieves made off with some baseball equipment, fishing gear, a pepper grinder and a table cloth after breaking into a cottage on Halls Lake. The incident is still under investigation.

Another cottage on Davis Lake was broken into during the week and this time thieves made off with a quantity of more valuable items.

Stolen in this crime were a portable stereo, a portable colour television, binoculars, a wall clock, a large quantity of fishing equipment and tackle and a radio.

This is still under investigation by Constable Mark Lund.

Driving tip of the week

Now that cold weather is here make sure you take the time to clean the frost off your windows. The driver of a motor vehicle is legally bound to have a clear view to the front, to the sides of the driving compartment and to the rear.

Canada Post Corporation

Our promise to Rural Canadians – signed, sealed and delivered

A recent independent study shows that 97% of our customers surveyed in rural areas, where retail postal services are now provided by local businesses, are fully satisfied with their postal services. Just as we promised.

Moreover, 92% are satisfied with their mail delivery, while 91% believe delivery to be as convenient or more convenient than before.

The message comes across loud and clear: an overwhelming majority of Rural Canadians surveyed believe that the post office is moving in the right direction. Furthermore, they consider that enlisting the help of local businesses helps to provide better services.

Our next step: Free lockbox service

Beginning January 3, 1989, customers who depend on lockboxes as their primary means of delivery will no longer have to pay a lockbox service fee. Charges will cease to apply for these customers when their lockboxes come up for renewal.

As part of our ongoing commitment to provide better services to you we will be mailing full details to you in the near future.

Staanworth Court news

Remembrance Day brought to my attention a verse that appeared on a very lonely grave in England after the Blitz of the Second World War, just two lines, but so inclusive -

"The greatest sacrifice of all

The gift of an unfinished life" - was it in vain? Lest We Forget.

Jean and Art Marsh visited the Royal Winter Fair by way of the bus sponsored by the Women's Institute of Minden., They spoke so highly of the Flower Show and the Horse Show. Many of us here agreed with them in their remarks, as we too watched the prowess exhibited by our favourite Royal Mounted Police Ride. The Royal is a fair we Canadians should be very proud of.

Many of our residents are recuperating from colds. Janet Perry and Dolly Ashford have had short stays in hospital and Ivy Angliss was taken by the ambulance to Lindsay Ross Memorial Hospital where, at time of writing, she is under observation.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Bill Donnelly on the death of his brother in Brampton; also to Melissa Hampson on the death of her mother, Mrs. Casey. Mrs. Casey was a former resident of our apartments, and made many friends.

A note of appreciation to Corrine Bonneville for her donation of a new wheelchair in memory of her husband Mr. Bonneville.

Our November meeting of Residents' Club suggested we keep in mind our Christmas party, December 14th and our pot luck supper, November 14 - later postponed to November 30.

Our pot luck supper was a real success. It was tastily prepared and a real variety of delicious foods. Since our birthday lady, Ivy Angliss, was in the hospital, our thoughts were with her, and her cake was shared with two anniversary couples, Mel and Doris Foster, and George and Lillian Davidson. (Get well soon Ivy). Anniversary congratulations to these happy couples.

Our November euchre evenings will, no doubt, provide interest or perhaps a laugh as I list the results of each week.

November 4 - high score - Fern D., low score - Doris F., most lone hands - Eleanor P. and Marg H.

November 11 - high score - Fern D., low score - Marg H., most lone hands - Eleanor P.

November 18 - high score - Lillian D., low score - Eleanor F. and lone hands - Henry H. and Corinne B.

November 25 - high score - Eleanor F., low score - Marg H. and lone hands - Doris F. Not bad, is it?

Did you hear about the man who read that smoking was bad for your health? He immediately gave up reading.

Congratulations to those candidates who were elected to their municipal and federal positions. May they prove themselves capable and worthy of their electorates.

Our Christmas wish to all - "May the Joy you give to others be the Joy that Christ gave to you."

Sincerely,
M.H.

Joseph Dollo

A prominent member of the Minden business community, Joe Dollo, passed away Sunday, December 4 at the Minden Hospital. Mr. Dollo had been ill for a number of months.

Joseph William Dollo was a partner with his brother Peter in the Dollo Brothers Fruit Market, a Main Street store that grew from a small fruit stand to a major grocery store serving the Minden area, Dollo's IGA. Joe Dollo retired from the business in 1975.

He was born in Toronto in 1915. It was in the city that he and his brother obtained their background in the grocery business, working in various stores and rising to the position of store manager.

In 1942, Joe joined the Royal Canadian Air Force and was stationed in Calgary and Toronto. Following the war, the brothers moved to Minden and opened their first store in this community.

Joe Dollo was an active member of the Rotary Club of Minden, serving as president in 1967. In January 1986, Joe was presented with the Club's highest honour, a Paul Harris Fellowship. He was also a member of Our Lady of Fatima Roman Catholic Church, Minden.

Joe Dollo is survived by his wife Florence, five children, Joan, Louise, Angie, Rose and Joe Jr. and numerous grandchildren. Also surviving are sisters Theresa and Mary and brothers Peter and Frank. He was predeceased by sisters Phyllis and Lucy.

Hello Readers: Sorry to have missed another week, I feel sure your hero correspondent will do lots better. It sure is a beautiful day.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lyle from Sundridge came last Thursday and took me out for lunch and a nice ride after. Nearly everyone in here had visitors on the weekend, but I did not receive any names. Miss Nancy Lyle from Sudbury was here Monday and took me out for lunch and a drive.

The afternoon tea was brought in by the Legion Ladies of Minden. It was real nice and the music and singing by Mr. Foster was much enjoyed. Thank you again.

We extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Florence Hunter who passed away recently.

We are sorry to report Dora Dawson and Edna Cowan are on the sick list. We are hoping and praying they will soon be feeling better.

Monday night the C.G.I.T. girls came in to present the residents with a Christmas banner that they had made. It was really nice, and we appreciate the gift very much. The girls names were: Brenda, Doreen, Chris, Julia, Stephanie, Nancy, Anna, Holly, Jeena. Thank you girls and have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Angus Coulter's son Leslie from Kirkfield came to see him on Tuesday.

The real beauty of democracy is that the average man believes he is above average.

Till next week.

New beds enhance spawning opportunities

Observations by the Ministry of Natural Resources have concluded that lake trout are using the enhanced spawning areas in St. Nora Lake in Sherborne Township and Little Hawk Lake in Stanhope Township.

This is good news for Don Stewart and The Friends of Little Hawk, a cottagers' association, which enhanced the spawning area in Little Hawk Lake with funds from a Community Fisheries Involvement Program (CFIP) offered through the ministry and utilizing Sport Fish Licence revenue.

Last year when the ministry located and evaluated these lake trout spawning areas they determined that the existing spawning rubble provided lake trout eggs with little protection against predation. At that time most of the eggs were exposed and probably became food for other fish.

In response to this study The Friends of Little Hawk added clean rock rubble to the spawning area in Little Hawk and the ministry added rock rubble to the spawning area in St. Nora before the lake trout spawning period this fall. This improved the spawning areas as the lake trout eggs could now filter down in the spaces between the added rock and escape predators.

When Rosemary Hartley, biology assistant at the Ministry's Frost Centre facility, inspected the spawning sites late this fall, the lake trout had used nearly 100 per cent of the enhanced area in St. Nora Lake and approximately 75 per cent of the large area enhanced in Little Hawk Lake. The lake trout eggs were plentiful and healthy.

In the near future native lake trout populations and anglers fishing on Little Hawk and St. Nora Lakes should benefit from this enhancement work.

Please contact Rosemary Hartley or Mike Buss at the Leslie M. Frost Natural Resources Centre for more information.

IN MEMORIAM

JANES: In loving memory of dear parents and grandparents Max and Evelyn, who passed away December 12, 1986.

Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all their ways,
Upright and just in all their days;

Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories they left behind.
Lovingly remembered by Nancy, Troy and Kim.

LINDSAY: In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William Lindsay, who passed away December 16, 1980.

A leaf in the book of memory
Is gently turned today.
Always remembered, wife
